Subject: Letter of Appreciation for Perfex International Pte Ltd's Products and Services

Dear Sir,

We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to Perfex International Pte Ltd for their radiator products and services that they have been providing to our company for many years now.

We have found that Perfex International Pte Ltd's radiator products and services are good, their staff demonstrate great product knowledge, and provide good technical support.

Perfex International Pte Ltd honour the warranty terms of their products and services well, and have always handled all product and performance related issues that we have encountered satisfactorily, in an efficient and professional manner.

We continually use Perfex International Pte Ltd's radiator products and services as and when required for our application, and we hope to further build a closer working relationship with them in the future.

Yours Sincerely,

Nasir M Sali
